

Year: 2020

Location: Japan

Program: Culture and Leisure

hagukumu KOHAN

A grid was found to accommodate storage, display shelves, lighting, and air conditioning for the cafe's needs, and the entire space is covered with paper tubes. In addition to the warmth of the paper tubes that make up the grid, colorful sound-absorbing boards were inserted into the grid to create a bright atmosphere, creating a holistic interior design within the tenant space.